

Holistic care that's all about you

Welcome

The Salvation Army has been providing aged care in Australia since 1880. Our purpose is to promote a unique experience of choice, lifestyle and belonging to all people as they age.

Our difference

- Holistic and person-centred care
- Caring, qualified and experienced staff
- A strong sense of community
- Pastoral and chaplaincy services available
- A government accredited provider that you know and trust.

Lifestyle

James Barker House offers a supportive lifestyle in a community setting. We are open to anyone requiring residential aged care, with a special focus on those who are marginalised.

Our beautiful heritage home is designed for residents' comfort, security and sense of belonging; and is conveniently located close to public transport, shops, cafes and other local services.

Our staff go well beyond the clinical needs to cater for the physical, emotional and spiritual wellbeing of our residents. We learn what is important to each individual and provide a wide range of programs and support services to help our residents live in comfort and with dignity.

We have strong ties with the local community, and have over time built a credible reputation as an organisation that genuinely cares for others without discrimination.

Aged Care

Care team

James Barker House is led by the Centre Manager. Together with our Care Manager, Chaplain, Registered Nurses, team of specialists and care staff, we ensure that every resident is safe, comfortable and loved.

Our residential care includes:

- Permanent and respite (short-term) care
- Memory support and palliative care
- Mental and behavioural health support.

*“I’m treated with respect and dignity.
The nurses, care workers and chaplains do
a wonderful job of looking after me.”*
