

Holistic care that's all about you

Welcome

The Salvation Army has been providing aged care in Australia since 1880. Our purpose is to promote a unique experience of choice, lifestyle and belonging to all people as they age.

Our difference

- Holistic and person-centred care
- Caring, qualified and experienced staff
- A strong sense of community
- Pastoral and chaplaincy services available
- A government accredited provider that you know and trust.

Lifestyle

Weeroona Aged Care Centre offers a supportive lifestyle in a comfortable, spacious home. Our property has beautiful courtyards and landscaped gardens and many indoor communal areas for our residents to relax and enjoy in. We have a range of single room options to suit different needs, tastes and budgets, and are close to public transport, Bass Hill Plaza, Chester Hill Square and local services. We are inclusive and embrace diversity within our culturally and linguistically diverse community of residents and staff.

You can trust our staff to go well beyond clinical needs to cater for the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual wellbeing of our residents. We take time to learn what is important to each individual and provide a range of programs tailored to help them live their best lives. Respect, dignity and choice are at the heart of all that we do.

Residents, their families and the local community are critical partners in enhancing the quality of care and wellbeing at Weeroona Aged Care Centre.

Aged Care

Care team

Weeroona Aged Care Centre is led by the Centre Manager. Together with our Care Manager, Chaplain, Registered Nurses, team of specialists and care staff, we ensure that every resident is safe, comfortable and loved.

Our residential care includes:

- Permanent and respite (short-term) care
- Memory support and palliative care.

“I experience so much joy living at Weeroona Aged Care Centre. Privacy is respected, there are plenty of activities to join in and I love spending time in the library. Weeroona is blessed...”
