COMMUNITY CARE

FEES AND SERVICES

The Salvation Army has been providing aged care in Australia since 1899.

Our NDIS Support Team offer a range of services to support you and connect you to your community. We will work with you to develop your personalised plan based on your individual goals. This can be adjusted at any time as your needs change and we do our best to match you with our support workers with common interests.

We can help you with

- Personal and clinical care*
- Domestic assistance*
- Visiting family and friends
- Medical appointments
- Outings to places of interest
- Some company by visiting you if you were in hospital
- Shopping for groceries and additional personal items such as clothes and gifts for your loved ones
- Companionship e.g. playing board games, reading, learning how to use technology or simply having a good chat over a coffee
- Accessing NDIS funding.

*Not applicable to clients living in our residential aged care centres.
